

For all the new boys:

For the upcoming camping season the following items are required:

- Sleeping bag-
 - synthetic filled - no cloth or cotton.
 - Mummy bags are best but not required for warmer weather.
 - Bags should be rated for 30 degrees or below
- Ground pad to put under sleeping bag.
 - These are thin pads that are not so much for comfort but to provide a layer of insulation between the ground and the sleeping bag.
- Nalgene type refillable water bottle
- Mess kit- plate, bowl and cup ,
 - this does not have to be metal - can be plastic. My kids had a set made by Tupperware
- Good flashlight/headlight
 - should be light weight and waterproof
- Rain gear- Pants and jacket-
 - try and find something that does not rip too easy
- Boots-
 - light weight waterproof boots are best for this time of year
- Polypropelyne socks-
 - the boys probably have them already if they play any kind of sport.
 - Cotton socks fit into the 'never' category
- For each campout there will be a packing list on line.
 - Many items can be found at Dicks , Sports Authority, Walmart
- One of the best places to shop is online at Campmor.com they are located in New Jersey and have very reasonable prices and fast shipping
